

WALKER CONSULTING SERVICE OFFERINGS

Organizational and Programmatic Consultation

Technical assistance in the development of new settings or restructuring of existing services and settings.

- Assessment of opportunities and challenges
- Planning and development of organizational features
- Budget development
- Staffing design and implementation
- Leadership and management development
- Development of policies, procedures, structures and processes
- On-going guidance and support

Program Evaluation

Analysis of program services and settings focusing on inputs, outputs and outcomes and providing findings and recommendations

- Collaborative setting of focus areas and critical questions for the evaluation
- Document and secondary data review and analysis
- Development, implementation and findings analysis of surveys, interviews and observations

Social-Emotional and Academic Curriculum & Instruction

Researching and selecting curricula, implementing/arranging professional development, and providing coaching and other support for implementation at the classroom, school and/or district level

Professional Development

Small and large group informational and transformational professional development and on-going support

Policy/Procedure Development

Development of new and/or revision of existing policies and procedures

Clinical Supervision

Group supervision for psychologists, social workers, counselors and interns by fully qualified senior clinicians

Psychiatric Consultation

In-person and phone consultation for clinical and educational staff by a licensed child and adolescent psychiatrist

Psychological Evaluation

Individual student psychological evaluation in school or community-based settings, with written reports and availability for review with staff teams

Student Case Consultation

Individual student case analysis and review with administrators, staff, and/or parents

For more information or to speak to someone about how Walker Consulting can address your organization's needs, please contact John Verre, Director of Walker Consulting at 781-292-2178 or jverre@walkercares.org.